FRANK CRONIN

Frank Cronin, the Director of Golf at the University of Maryland, started the Intercollegiate Golf program at the University in 1947. His varsity teams have compiled a 24 year record of 193 wins against only 74 losses and five ties. His 1971 team compiled a 4-0 record.

Cronin ranks as one of Maryland's all-time athletes. He was the Southern Intercollegiate Middleweight Champion in Boxing and quarter mile champion for three years both indoors and outdoors. He was also the Southern Conference pole vault champion.

A 1939 graduate of the University, he has served as both boxing and golf coach.

He was chosen by the Middle Atlantic PGA as their golf professional of the year for 1971.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND GOLF COURSE

The University course was dedicated on May 15, 1959. Situated over 210 rolling, wooded acres just west of campus, the championship course, driving range and clubhouse provide both recreational and teaching services to the University community. Par is 36-35-71. The course is 6,675 yards with the longest hole the 511-yard seventh. The course record 64 was set by Golf Coach Frank Cronin in 1964 when the course was a par 72.
